Apex Skip-Its Program Policies

- 1. Photography - I permit the Apex Skip-Its to use pictures of my child as a program participant in promotional literature, promotional videos and the Apex Skip-Its Web site, which are published and used by the Apex Skip-Its. I understand that my child's name will not be published.
- 2. Accident Insurance - Participants are responsible for their own accident insurance when participating in Apex Skip-Its programs.
- 3. Refunds - I understand that non-attendance does not entitle me a refund. I understand that no refunds or adjustment are granted for illness, vacation or when Apex Skip-Its programs are cancelled due to inclement weather. All refunds or program credits given for other reasons are issued on a prorated basis. I understand that the Apex Skip-Its reserves the right to apply any credit due to other outstanding balances. Refunds are issued within 45 days of cancellation. No refunds will be issued for cancellations received after the start of the program.
- 4. Sportsmanship - As a parent or legal guardian, I understand that the Apex Skip-Its program is an instructional and fun club/clinic representing skill development, positive values and good fellowship. I will support the Apex Skip-Its goals, as well as the coaches and volunteers in teaching these values.
- 5. Proper attire – Tennis shoes (athletic & supportive footwear) are expected each day. No boots, flip flops, crocs, sandals or dress shoes are allowed.
- 6. Purchasing a jump rope: Families assume the responsibility of getting and sizing an appropriate jump rope for their jumper/s, with the assistance of the Team Coaches.
- 7. Wi-Fi preparedness & connectivity– Each family is responsible for making sure their jumper has a working device that connects to the internet, and has appropriate Wi-Fi strength. Apex Skip-Its assumes no responsibility for any issues related to connectivity, or damage to devices related to participation in this clinic.
- 8. Zoom app: Each family is responsible for setting up a Zoom account as we will utilize this app to connect remotely to your jumper/s. Visit: Zoom.us
- 9. Remote Learning etiquette: Jumpers will practice safe and respectful etiquette during each of the Zoom sessions, including our main room and any breakout rooms by: Keeping their microphone muted when the adult coaches and/or our Jr. Coaches are teaching; Always using appropriate language.
- 10. Learning space at home: Each family is responsible for helping set-up an appropriate area - preferably inside (ie. Garage, den, playroom, bedroom, etc.), in case of bad weather - for the jumper to participate in our Zoom sessions each afternoon. You must keep in mind Wi-Fi connectivity concerns related to where they will be jumping, as well as the space directly in front of, behind and overhead of the jumper. Families assume responsibility for moving furniture and other valuable/breakables to a safe distance from the jumper/s.

In its practices, Apex Skip-Its does not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, disability, national or ethnic origin.

I have read and understand all the policies stated above.
